Dear Prospective Partner,

We are excited to introduce the National Security Club (NSC) at the University of Florida, dedicated to cultivating the next generation of national security leaders. Affiliated with the Florida Institute for National Security (FINS), our organization bridges academic excellence with the operational and strategic demands of the security community.

We are in an era of rapid innovation and shifting global challenges. As the national security landscape continues to evolve, so too does the need for well-trained, ethically-grounded professionals. NSC seeks to inspire and prepare students who are curious, disciplined, and driven to strengthen our nation's security.

As a top-10 public university, the University of Florida is home to one of the most diverse and talented student bodies in the nation. NSC brings together students with expertise across multiple disciplines, creating a unique ecosystem for national security education, innovation, and professional development.

Our Vision & Goals

NSC aims to cultivate a multidisciplinary community of students interested in national security by providing access to professionals and opportunities that develop their skills and empower them to become emerging leaders.

Build Community

Unite students curious or passionate about national security

Provide Access

Connect students to government and industry professionals

Develop Skills

Offer strategic hands-on learning and career preparation activities

We invite you to partner with us in shaping these future leaders through sponsorship opportunities that provide meaningful engagement, visibility, and recruitment access to top talent. Your investment in NSC is an investment in the national security mission— helping to ensure that our nation has the skilled, diverse, and dedicated professionals needed to lead at the forefront of global security.

We look forward to exploring how we can work together to advance our shared mission of developing exceptional national security professionals.

Respectfully,

NSC Leadership Team

Annual Events & Programming

UF NSC will host a diverse range of events throughout the academic year, providing multiple opportunities for sponsors to engage with our members and showcase their organizations.

Distinguished Speaker Series

Monthly

Our speaker series connects students with national security professionals from diverse backgrounds to explore the breadth of career paths and challenges within the field. Through meaningful, multidisciplinary conversations, students gain a deeper understanding of national security and their potential role within it.

Event Concept:

- Keynote presentations or panel discussions
- Moderated Q&A sessions
- Small group discussions
- Networking opportunities

Sponsor Benefits:

- Speaking or panel opportunities
- Enhance visibility and awareness
- Networking and student engagement
- Opportunities for meaningful dialogue

Experiential Learning Sessions

Quarterly

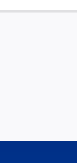

Students develop skills in critical thinking, cross-disciplinary teamwork and national security strategy by tackling real-world-inspired security challenges. Sponsors can host, co-host, or support sessions through donations, resource contributions, or by providing facilitators and scenario ideas.

Examples include:

- Mock treaty negotiation
- Policy response simulations
- National security crisis night
- Other technology- or scenario-based exercises

Sponsor Benefits:

- Direct student engagement
- Support skill development and applied learning
- Strengthen visibility and reputation
- Showcase organization's culture and approach

Professional Development Workshops

Quarterly

These interactive workshops focus on skills essential for national security roles, equipping students with the language, etiquette and context needed to succeed. Sessions combine instruction, discussion, and hands-on exercises to help students navigate the expectations and environments of the field.

Example Topics:

- Resume and interview workshops
- Presenting to a national security audience
- National security terminology and frameworks
- Leadership and decision-making

Sponsor Benefits:

- Host, co-host, or sponsor workshops
- Showcase expertise & culture
- Connect with motivated students
- Enhance brand visibility

Site Visits & External Engagement

Quarterly

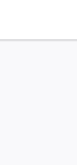

These programs connect students directly with the national security ecosystem, providing direct exposure to operations, career environments and real-world challenges. Site visits strengthen relationships between students and sponsors while deepening understanding of the field.

Visit examples:

- Defense startups
- Security-related conferences and events
- External competitions
- Tours of labs and research facilities

Sponsor Benefits:

- Host students at your facility or event
- Highlight organization mission & projects
- Extended interactions with students
- Build lasting connections with emerging talent

Competition Events

Quarterly

Competition events encourage students to apply skills in teamwork, communication and problem-solving to national security challenges. These events foster innovation, critical thinking, and collaboration, giving students hands-on experience across technology, policy, and strategy.

Competition ideas:

- Innovation sprint
- War games and scenario simulations
- Lightning talks and case competitions

Sponsor Benefits:

- Collaborate on competition designs
- Serve as judges or mentors
- Build awareness and engage with top students

Community & Discussion Events

Multiple Per Semester

These gatherings foster collaboration, dialogue, and a deeper understanding of national security topics in a relaxed setting. Organizations can host or sponsor events, helping to strengthen connections and support the growth of our national security community.

Event Features:

- Small group mentoring circles
- Themed movie or documentary nights
- Current event or ethical discussions

Sponsor Benefits:

- Build awareness and visibility
- Promote community-building and mentorship
- Encourage open conversations

Year-Round Engagement

Beyond our signature events, sponsors can engage with the NSC's members in ways that fit their goals and resources. Additional engagement opportunities include:

Digital Presence

- Share insights or content
- Social media mentions

Direct Access

- Directly advertise opportunities
- Attend meetings or panels

Custom Programs

- Host virtual sessions
- Mentorship programs
